MESSAGE OF THE FEDERAL MINISTER FOR PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

The Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs is mandated to ensure smooth, productive, and seamless interaction between the Parliament and the Government. To perform this important function, the Ministry acts as the sole coordinating agency between both Houses of Parliament and all Ministries, while assisting the Houses in performing their functions in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, relevant rules and procedures.

Parliamentary business is of great significance, as the Parliament has a heterogeneous character with a significant presence of all major political parties. In such a diversified environment, responsibility of Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs has an added dimension to create a congenial atmosphere in both Houses through effective coordination. Additionally, the Ministry performs the vital role of redressing public grievances through the Prime Minister’s Public Affairs and Grievances Wing, which has been instrumental in resolving a large number of public complaints.

Under the dynamic leadership of the Prime Minister, Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs is striving to fulfill the mission of the present government: to bring progress, prosperity, and betterment in the lives of the people of Pakistan; establish the rule of law; fortify the foundations of democracy; protect civil liberties; and promote human rights.

The Year Book of the Ministry sheds light on our commitment and performance in achieving the objectives and mandate of the Ministry. I, therefore, expect that it will be of great interest and serve as a valuable source of information for the readers.

Senator Azam Nazeer Tarar
Federal Minister for Parliamentary Affairs

FOREWORD

The Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs plays a crucial role in maintaining effective communication and coordination between the legislature and the executive branches of the state. Its responsibilities include overseeing the complete law-making process from inception to completion. This involves organizing sessions of the Senate and National Assembly, managing the introduction and examination of Bills by relevant Standing Committees, and ensuring that passed Bills receive the assent of the President to become law.

Additionally, the Prime Minister’s Public Affairs and Grievances Wing of the Ministry is dedicated to addressing public complaints. The Wing operates to manage thousands of complaints of citizens across Pakistan having no access to digital means including those from remote areas and overseas Pakistanis. The Wing also monitors the progress of complaints to ensure timely and effective redressal, enhancing public trust in government institutions through accountability and contributing to better governance. The Ministry endeavours to ensure that the legislative process runs smoothly and that public grievances are addressed promptly and efficiently.

In pursuance of Rule 25 of the Rules of Business, 1973, this publication covers activities, targets and achievements of the Ministry during the Financial Year 2023-24. Consistent with our values of openness and transparency, the Ministry has meticulously compiled this comprehensive report. I hope that this publication will serve as an important reference for scholars, researchers and the general public.

I extend my sincere appreciation and acknowledgment to all concerned officers and staff of the Ministry for their contributions to the compilation of the Year Book 2023-24.

Humaira Ahmed
Secretary
Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs,
Islamabad.

INTRODUCTION

The Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs was established in April, 2012. Subsequently, the Prime Minister’s Public Affairs and Grievances Wing was transferred to the Ministry by the Prime Minister’s Office in June, 2013.

The Ministry primarily deals with business of the Government in Parliament and supervises the entire legislative process, including the summoning and prorogating the sessions of both Houses of Parliament, follow-up on Government assurances given in Parliament, and legislation pertaining to the functions of both Houses. It plays an important role in coordinating and maintaining liaison between the legislature and the executive, with the objective of ensuring harmonious functioning of the polity.
